THE DEPENDABLE ONE

Realizing the Development Dream, India is continuously liberalizing its economy, and has opened up almost all sectors, such as real-estate, foreign investors, the perception about emerging markets among investors, all of which are undergoing a rapid change. However, there are major Indian conglomerate companies which focus on developing India into a beautiful developed nation. Amarprakash, is a leading name in the industry, which is headquartered in Chennai, Tamil Nadu; they are highly acclaimed for creating residential and commercial establishments in par with quality. The brand caters to diverse needs of the customers including home decor, property development, property maintenance service and infrastructure. Incorporated in the year 2004, under the name “Amarprakash Developers”, it took over the residential constructions in the city by storm. Thereafter, the company went to change its portfolio to a private limited company known as Amarprakash Developers Private Limited in the year 2007.

Ever since its inception as promoters in Chennai, Amraprakash is a noted name in both conservative and modern dimensions of real estate development. It is the massive infrastructure and innovative design that has made the real estate wing of the Group to be amongst one of the most dignified and foremost names in Chennai. The brand has laid strong foundations on the clear vision and systematic approach which has enabled them to soar great heights in the competitive world of building.

FORTIFYING INNOVATION

Given the changing trend, and considering it would continue for some years together, the real-estate industry is bringing the best of what they have to offer. At Amarprakash, the real estate promoters believe that the constructions built at this arena lasts for a lifetime, as today the brand focuses on delivering innovative and quality buildings with updated cutting-edge technology. In addition, they provide the best of services with the support of more than 750 dedicated professionals whose skills are at the pinnacle of the construction industry. Backing up on their tough track records of over 13 years in the construction field has helped them reach a trustworthy position in the real estate market.

The brand has successfully served more than 4500+ happy customers and handed over eight residential projects and a development of more than 4 million Sq.ft and another 5 million Sq.ft of residential and commercial development still under construction. The brand has always kept the essence alive by treating their customers as a part of their bigger family, by extending and addressing all Amarprakash builders' complaints and other customer requirements to offer complete customer satisfaction. They believe in delivering the best to the customers, the industry and the environment we live in.

They are also known for the unique elegant style they add to their construction projects that cater to Vaasthu and modern architectural philosophy and for their vigor to provide "quality homes in a safer environment with world class amenities". Amarprakash housing construction in Chennai has become a popular brand name that is well renowned for creating aesthetically beautiful homes which are conceptualized and customized in accordance to the visualization of the prospective home buyers. The general review on Amarprakash Developers is highly promising in which providing best lifestyle living option to the clients for the best market price is seen as their USP. Being Tamil Nadu's Most Trusted Developer, they have indeed carved a niche in the real-estate sector for their on-time delivery, attractive adherence to quality norms and reasonable pricing policy. If you are looking to buy a home in Tamil Nadu, Amarprakash is definitely the best option for you to invest, buy a new home and fill it with memories you have always dreamed off as a family.
